Things to Remember

◆ Send the Right Person for the Job

Make sure to appoint a representative who is able to explain both your situation and company profile. This person makes it far easier for job-seekers to understand what it would be like to work for a company like yours!

◆ Your Booth Representative is an Ambassador for Your Company

Your representative should always act professionally, both inside and outside of the booth. Candidates may be watching him/her in order to get a better idea of how your company is run.

◆ Catch Their Eye

Feel free to display your company's products and branding! Anything from booklets to posters will help the attendees get a feel for your company, and the message you'd like to portray with it. If you would like to use a particular hard-to-get material (such as a sheet, or patterned carpet) please contact your Account Executive at last one week before the Fair.

◆ Brochures

Feel free to display your company's brochures as per our guidelines. Please keep any extra brochures in your booth.

◆ Packaging Logistics

If you need to ship any parcels or luggage from the venue after the Fair has concluded, we will provide a C.O.D. (cash on delivery) packing slip at Reception.

◆ Cancellation

A fee will be charged in the event of a cancellation. If you wish to cancel, please contact your Account Executive. The Cancellation fee will be calculated from the date of the notice of cancellation.

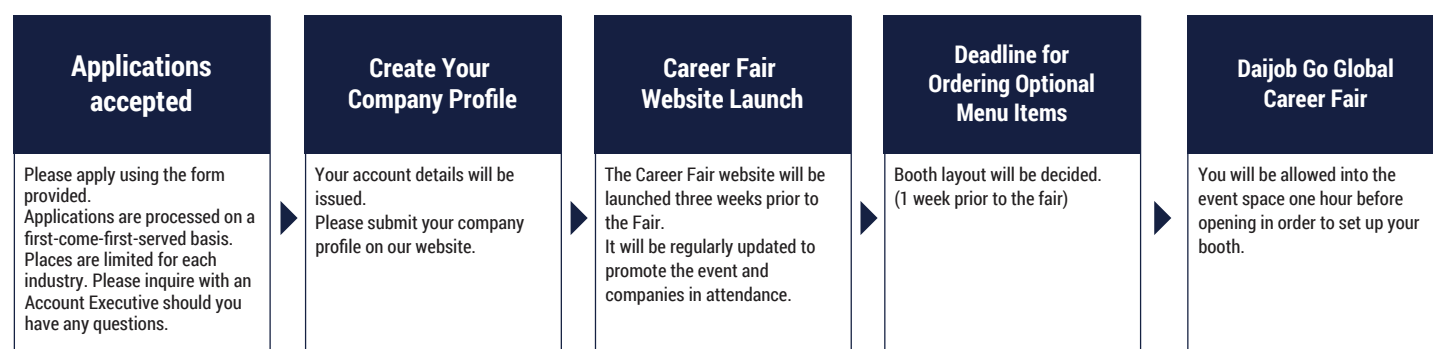

Notes

- Please keep and wear at all times the name plates that will be handed to you at the entrance to the event.
- Feel free to use the designated resting area to indulge in a quick snack or refresh yourself with a drink or two.

Rules & Regulations

- Solicitations outside of your allotted booth space are prohibited.
- Please make sure that your posters and panels do not stick out from your booth.
- Please ask our staff if you would like to take a picture. Photographs cannot be taken without permission.
- The space outside of your booth is considered a public area for all attendees. Since there will be ample representation elsewhere, we ask that you not distribute your company's fliers or scout candidates in this space.

Participation Schedule

*Please refer to your Account Executive should you require any more information.

09 Steps to achieve hiring success on the day of the fair

Follow the four steps below to prepare your company for successful recruitment.
Many companies have successfully recruited from our fair.

Step 1: Special fair website up!

A special website will be opened one month before the fair to start promotion!
*Daijob.com, one of the largest in Japan, has surpassed 780,000 cumulative members!

Step 2: Form a recruitment pool

2-1. Accept pre-applications from job seekers!

You will receive a list of applicants interested in applying for a position. Resume screening can be conducted in advance to contact the most qualified candidates for interviews on the day of the event.

2-2. Guide job seekers with scout e-mails

You can send scout e-mails automatically and easily by setting the delivery text and recruiting condition. This function allows you to deliver your message to the people you want to hire, and to acquire excellent candidates.

*There is a limit of up to 100 e-mails.

Step 3: During fair: Use individual interview booths

In addition to normal booths, you may also offer interviews to job seekers who have reserved an interview in advance or who will be at the booth on the day of the interview to discuss employment opportunities.

Please consider conducting interviews in a private environment via our individual interview booths. We recommend that the person in charge of recruitment handle these interviews.

*Individual interview booths are available as a paid option.

Please consult with our sales representatives in advance.

Step 4: After the fair - within 1 week: Approach candidates swiftly!

Candidates may be approached by multiple exhibiting companies at the same time.

Please proceed with the selection process swiftly after the fair.

All of us at Daijob.com sincerely hope that you will be successful in your recruitment endeavors!
